

SEASONAL PARK RANGER POSITIONS ANNOUNCEMENT

LOCATION

Dead Horse Point State Park near Moab, Utah. Adjacent to Canyonlands and Arches National Parks, Dead Horse Point is a scenic park that sits on a mesa 2,000 feet above the Colorado River. The park hosts 200,000 visitors annually from locations worldwide. This position is an excellent opportunity for experience in the field of parks and recreation in a scenic, remote, and natural environment.

LENGTH OF POSITION

March 2007 through October 2007. These are seasonal positions requiring 40 hours of work per week. The work week is 4 ten hour days with 3 days off each week.

SALARY

Pay rate of $9.01/hr on a bi-weekly basis plus free housing.

HOUSING

Employees are required to live on the park. Housing and utilities are provided at no cost. Employees should have their own transportation as the nearest groceries and services are in Moab.

BACKGROUND

Applicants with education and/or experience in parks and recreation or visitor services may be given preference but is not required.

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Seasonal rangers are involved in complete park operations. Approximately 30% of time will be spent in visitor services such as visitor center operations, campground management, and conducting interpretive programs; 30% in fee collections and entrance station operations; 30% in custodial duties and 10% in light maintenance.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applications are available by phoning Assistant Park Manager Daniel Dranginis or Park Manager Lee Sjoblom at (435)259-2614.

Interested persons should submit application to:

Dead Horse Point State Park
P.O. Box 609
Moab, UT 84532-0609

Please include your telephone number.

